Kensington Dry Gin

[ORIGIN : BELGIUM]

Kensington Dry Gin is a prestigious and unique specialty dry gin, representing outstanding value for money.

It is produced by combining quality grain with Scottish mineral water and distilling in old English tradition to deliver the finest quality London style dry gin.

Kensington Dry Gin maintains lingering memories of single malt origins; a unique blend that will satisfy all whisky and gin lovers.

Kensington Dry Gin is an amazingly complex and refined gin made from a combination of grains such as barley, corn and rye. It is then infused with juniper berries and other botanicals before laying in new American oak barrels.
